3. ☐ At least one amendment has been filed subsequent to the final rejection, and the brief does not contain a statement of the status of each such amendment (37 CFR 41.37(c)(1)(iv)).
4. ☐ (a) The brief does not contain a concise explanation of the subject matter defined in each of the independent claims involved in the appeal, referring to the specification by page and line number and to the drawings, if any, by reference characters; and/or (b) the brief fails to: (1) identify, for each independent claim involved in the appeal and for each dependent claim argued separately, every means plus function and step plus function under 35 U.S.C. 112, sixth paragraph, and/or (2) set forth the structure, material, or acts described in the specification as corresponding to each claimed function with reference to the specification by page and line number, and to the drawings, if any, by reference characters (37 CFR 41.37(c)(1)(v)).
5. ☐ The brief does not contain a concise statement of each ground of rejection presented for review (37 CFR 41.37(c)(1)(vi)).

Continuation of 10. Other (including any explanation in support of the above items): Each section must be denoted by the section number. For example, "Real Party in Interest" is number I, "Related Appeals and Interferences" is number II,... "Arguments" is number VII, and "Claims Appendix" is number VIII...etc. Section (VII) ARGUMENT RE. 112, 2nd PARAGRAPH, REJECTION is an appropriate subheading under the main headings where the main headings correspond with its respective grounds of rejection. The Argument section must match the Grounds section inasmuch as each ground corresponds to a heading within the Argument section. Applicant may include separate sub-headings when arguing claims individually; all claims within a ground must be grouped together within the arguments.
